

Two-Year Degree for JROTC Instructors

28 August 2009

This is a message for all JROTC instructors without a two-year degree.

RTG & Associates, Inc. has a low-cost, accredited AAS degree opportunity for JROTC instructors utilizing the completion of the five JROTC Distance Learning courses (Contemporary American Education/Dynamic Teaching, Educational Psychology, Classroom Management, Instructional Methods, and Learning and the Brain). Instructors earn their AAS Degree in General Military Leadership from Rio Salado College. This program is 100% online and in no way conflicts with your normal duties. (Cost per credit for JROTC instructors at Rio Salado College is only $125 per credit, plus a $15 per semester registration fee).

Please open the below links and follow our instructions. Some basic steps are:

1. Sign and fax the Rio Salado College cover sheet for an unofficial 'no-cost' review. Ensure you fax ALL your transcripts with this cover sheet. If you are missing any transcripts, have that school forward official transcripts to Ms. Yvonne Lawrence at Rio Salado College. You can click (or, cut and paste the following to your web browser) this link:

CCAF: <http://www.leadershipcredit.info/transcripts.php?w=af>
SMART: <http://www.leadershipcredit.info/transcripts.php?w=navy>
CGIT: <http://www.leadershipcredit.info/transcripts.php?w=cg>

3. To convert the five JROTC distance-learning courses (mentioned above) to transcribed college credits, click on this link:

- The cost is $480 per three-credit course, not per credit! No fees at UCCS!

Finally, please call your RTG & Associates education point of contact with any questions, to include financing. We can provide optional solutions for most scenarios.

The absolute minimum cost a student will incur for this program can be approximately $4,000. (Note: Actual costs determined by student's academic history)
